REV. A. G. DINWIDDIE, for two years past, pastor in charge of the Methodist church at this place, has been transferred to the Missouri Conference and has accepted a call to the church at Chillicothe, Livingston county, in the Northern part of that State, and will remove with his family to that place in a few weeks. We regret that the church at this place is to be deprived of Dr. Dinwiddie's valuable services as a minister, and that the town is to be deprived of such a good citizen. The Doctor is an able divine and a most genial, social gentleman, popular with all classes, and all denominations; and he has a most interesting family, all of whom will be sadly missed from our social circles;—notably, his lovely daughters, Miss Emma and Mary Boyd. We wish the Dr. success and happiness in his new field of labor.—Shelbyville Commercial.

THE trial of Ike Parrish, colored, for the killing of young Taylor in the neighborhood of Longview several weeks ago terminated in the acquittal of the defendant yesterday afternoon. The evidence in the case turned out quite different from what it was reported to be. It was proved that the negro woman whom Taylor struck was Parrish's lawful wife, and that Taylor had cursed her, knocked her down with a tobacco stick and was in the act of striking again when Parrish brought the deadly corn knife to the rescue. The theory that defense of the wife justifies the husband in all the extreme measures allowed him in defense of himself is not a new one, and the principle of law supporting it is right and just. Let every man white or black, protect his wife from any and all harm. The man who will not do it deserves not the name of man.—Hopkinsville New Era.

Oakland City, Ind., Sept. 27, '86. J. C. Mendenhall & Co., Evansville, Ind. Gentlemen: "Your Certain Chill Cure" is meeting with greater demand than ever at present. I have been selling it on a guarantee (without any authority from you, however) to break chills, with privilege in case of failure, of customer returning for money, with happy results so far, not a bottle having been returned. Yours truly, IRA LUTER, druggist. Sold by Owen & Moore, druggists, Clarksville, Tenn. oct8-1m

SOME enterprising footpads entered the Farmer's Bank, of New-Castle, Del., at a very early hour on Friday Sept. 30th, disguised with masks, and finding Mr. Cooper, the Cashier, within levelled their pistols at that worthy gentleman, and ordered him not to say a word. The cashier promised not to, but concluded to let his pistol do the talking, so he drew it, and winged one of the covetous young Robin Hoods who was dragged out by his comrades. The party then "schedaddled."

FRANK ASHBY HAWKINS, the eldest son of Mrs. Cynthia Hawkins, a wealthy widow lady of Islip, L. I., confessed the horrible crime of having deliberately taken his mother out for a buggy ride, then murdered her, and thrown the body by the wayside in the bushes, because she stood in the way of his marrying her servant girl, Miss Hattie Ahrick, to whom he was engaged.

A Brand New South.

(New York Herald.)

It is pretty clear that the South has no time to wrangle over battle flags and none to waste in mourning over a "lost cause." She has a "new found cause" worth a dozen of that she dropped on the field of Appomattox—the cause of industry which is giving her health, plenty and happiness. It used to be said in the old days before the war that the South looked down on the North. However that may be, if she goes on in mining and manufacturing enterprises for twenty years more as she has been going on during the last half decade the North will have to strike a new gait or the South will be looking back at her in the rear.

Her progress during the last eight months makes the seven league boots of Jack the Giant Killer quite unnecessary. The capital she has invested during that time is considerably over $200,000,000. In seven years she has established 15,000 new industries, and her iron mining increase has jumped from 397,000 tons to nearly 900,000, with machine shops, flour mills, cotton mills, lumber mills, and in fact everything else in proportion.

The South is not putting on any airs, but she is making barrels of money. All right. She has a magnificent section of the country and is working it for all it is worth.

Wretched, Indeed.

Are those whom a confirmed tendency to biliousness, subject to the various and changeable symptoms indicative of liver complaint. Nausea, sick headache, constipation, furred tongue, an unpleasant breath, a dull or sharp pain in the neighborhood of the affected organ, impurity of the blood and loss of appetite, signalize it as one of the most distressing, as it is one of the most common, of maladies. There is, however, a benign specific for the disease and all its unpleasant manifestations. It is the concurrent testimony of the public and the medical profession, that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a medicine which achieves results speedily felt, thorough and benign. Besides rectifying liver disorder, it invigorates the feeble, conquers kidney and bladder complaints, and hastens the convalescence of those recovering from enfeebling diseases. Moreover, it is the grand specific for fever and ague. oct8-1m

The most exquisite piece of sensational literature of modern times, and one eminently characteristic of the American taste for fiction, is the story going the rounds of even the most respectable daily newspapers that the present Emperor of Germany is not really Emperor of Germany, but a dummy or substitute foisted on the German people by Bismarck. The story goes that the genuine Simon Pure Emperor died, and that Bismarck found a man exactly like him, and substituted him in the place of the real Emperor. Then if this story be true, Wilhelm is not the husband of his wife the Empress, nor the father of his son Frederick (Unser Fritz) nor the uncle of Francis Joseph, Emperor of Austria, in short is not himself, but some other man, and is the steepest kind of a fraud generally and collectively. This story lacks the consistency and coherency of even some of General Joseph Mulhaffan's choicest productions. It is altogether without plausibility or even probability.

The Treacherous Pistol Again.

Ed. Dinwiddie and a young man named Wilson, near Wallonia, Ky., last Tuesday afternoon, got to "morkeying" with a pistol with the usual result. The plaything went off unexpectedly and there was a funeral. Dinwiddie's friend when they carried the young man to his long home, had the usual consolation of knowing that Wilson didn't know that the weapon was loaded, and didn't mean to kill Dinwiddie, but this didn't tend materially to lighten their sorrow.

THE success of some of the agents employed by B. F. Johnson & Co., Richmond, Va., is truly marvellous. It is not an unusual thing for their agents to make as high as $20 and $30 a day, and sometimes their profits run as high as $40 and $50—even more. But we hesitate to tell you the whole truth, or you will scarcely believe we are in earnest. Write then and see for yourself what they do for you.

On Tuesday of last week, several United States Marshals arrested a blind man named Ras Wynns living in Henry county for the violation of the revenue laws. The party put up for the night near the Kentucky State line, and all went to sleep, when Wynns got up and felt his way to the door and succeeded in giving them the slip. He turned up five miles off the next morning and hearing a clock strike, went to the house, guided by the sound, procured horses and a guide and made his way home.

MRS. CLEVELAND declares that she will not again have her photograph taken while she remains mistress of the white house. She is offended at the use made of what purports to be her portrait in selling cigarettes and chewing tobacco. We don't blame her in the least. She would be clearly justifiable in suing the vendors for a libel in publishing such miserable caricatures of her.

Gov. BEAVER, of Pennsylvania, is a great Sunday school advocate. He is booked to deliver the address to the annual convention of the State Sabbath School at Harrisburg in November.

GENERAL NEWS.

A Miss Phoebe Cousins has been appointed U. S. Marshal for the Eastern division of Missouri.

According to the portraits in the newspapers, Ayonh Kahu is rather a hard looking specimen of a candidate for a king.

The American Yacht Volunteer has beaten the Scotch Thistle a second race. This decides the contest and America retains the championship and the belt.

Louisville conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South is in session at Hartford, Ky., Bishop Granberry presiding.

The Farmers Guild.

One of the most favorable and encouraging signs of the times and symptoms of coming prosperity is the determined and vigorous effort of the tillers of the soil to effect a complete, compact and intelligent representative national organization. Nearly every other trade avocation and calling has a national guild for the protection of its interests and preservation of its welfare, and we have often wondered why this most useful and honorable of them all should be without a thorough complete and effective organization to look after its welfare and study its interests. Such an organization would be a big thing, and would be a power that would be apt to make itself heard in political circles, and felt in the legislation of the country.

Excitement in Texas.

Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Tex., by the remarkable recovery of Mr. J. E. Corley, who was so helpless he could not turn in bed, or raise his head; everybody said he was dying of consumption. A trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding relief, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills; by the time he had taken two boxes of Pills and two bottles of the Discovery, he was well and had gained in flesh thirty-six pounds. Trial bottles of this Great Discovery for Consumption free at Owen & Moore's.

BAC. DEXTON, of the Princeton Banner, has two new partners. A card in the issue of Oct. 6th, announces that he has sold a one-half interest in the paper to Mr. Will H. Hayes, formerly of the Muhlenburg Echo, an experienced journalist, and the same issue makes the following announcement: "A little newspaper man arrived a four house last Wednesday just after we printed the last issue of the Banner. He is a sprightly little fellow and proposes to be heard in the world, at least for a while." We congratulate brother Denton, on this enlargement of his business connections and arrangements, and wish the new firm unbounded success.

IN 1852, the government brought from Arabia into Texas a lot of camels to test their usefulness in crossing the American desert to California. These animals were the ancestors of the present camels, both wild and tame, found in numbers in Texas. It is said some of them will be on exhibition at the State fair in Dallas this fall.

It is rumored that a negro was killed at La Grange Iron Works near Danville, Tenn., by a cowardly white brute named Burks who slipped up behind his victim, buried a hammer in the back part of his skull crushing it, and killing him instantly and then took out for tall timber. Detective are in pursuit of the murderer. The negro's name is not given.

ONE of our most enterprising citizens, together with the proprietor of the Franklin House, Clarksville, is contemplating the erection of a four story brick block on the old Mozart Hall property, recently purchased by a Clarksville syndicate. The cost is figured at $60,000. This sounds loud on paper, but the gentlemen have the "wherewith" and are in earnest. The proposed project is for a hotel investment.—Hopkinsville New Era.

Ladies.

In delicate health needing a gentle yet effective laxative will find the California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, pleasing to the taste, acceptable to the stomach, and perfectly safe in all cases. It is the most easily taken and pleasantly effective remedy known to cure and prevent constiveness, to dispel headaches, colds and fever, and strengthen the kidneys, liver and bowels, and is therefore a favorite remedy with ladies. For sale in 50 cents and $1.00 bottles by druggists. oct8-1m

Gov. TAYLOR has appointed Ex-Gov. D. W. C. Senter, of Panther Springs, a State delegate to the Farmers National Convention which meets in Chicago on the 1st of November.

ALL the world will feel relieved to learn that Hon. Jno. J. Ventres is for Hon. Isham G. Harris for U. S. Senator. Now let anybody dare to avow themselves for anybody else, will you?

If Nashville is so anxious for the Midland road, her merchants who would reap the principal benefit from it should go into their own pockets, and not expect the county to carry the burden.—Humboldt Messenger.

THE Chattanoogaans are preparing to ovate the President and Mrs. Cleveland during their stop of one hour in that city. He will not have time to shake hands with many of the sovereigns during that short stop.

Did't Know it was Loaded Again.

The Cadiz Telephone has the following melancholy statement;

A very sad accident occurred at the residence of Wm. H. Dinwiddie, near Wallonia, last Sunday, about 12 o'clock, while the family were at dinner. Walter Wilson, a youth about 16 years old, who was visiting the family, and Albert Dinwiddie, a young man 21 or 22 years old, finished dinner and retired to the sitting room. Wilson took up an old pistol lying on the mantle, and snapped it; and as he turned around, the weapon was discharged, the ball penetrating Dinwiddie's left eye, passed through his brain, killing him instantly. The most intimate friends of the family between the two young men, and young Wilson is greatly distressed at having killed his best friend. The parents of the dead boy are heart-broken at the sudden and untimely death of their oldest child. The casualty was on the saddest that has ever happened in the county, and has cast a gloom over the entire community.

A Strange and Unexpected Suicide.

A gambler named Sam Branch was indicted and convicted of grand larceny in the Circuit court at Chattanooga on the 5th inst., and, when the verdict of the jury was announced, sprang to his feet and exclaimed: "Before God, I am not guilty of this crime. I will appeal my case to a higher court," when he drew a small pocket-knife from his coat and plunged the blade in his neck drawing it across his throat three times, cutting his neck more than half off and severing the right jugular vein. In a half an hour he expired weltering in a pool of blood on the Court House floor.

The Internal Revenue.

The high tariff butter and bread brigade of the Democracy squeal against the "Internal" Revenue system, because the people grumble at the taxes and demand a reduction of the surplus in the treasury, but wipk with both eyes at the infernal war tariff upon the necessities of life, and forget to propose its abolition or reduction. The people would prefer a reduction of the surplus by lowering the tariff if the politicians will let them. If no, they will have to tug under their burdens in silence, consoling themselves with the reflection, in the meantime, that they are helping along the "business" of the country.

Natural Farmer's Alliance.

The seventh annual session of the National Farmer's Alliance began at Minneapolis on the 4th inst., with fifty delegates present from the following States: Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Dakota. There is a very sensible project on foot to unite this association and the Southern, comprising the following States: Kansas, Michigan, Idaho, Missouri, Arkansas, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, Washington Territory, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Texas. Such an alliance would be a power that would be able to make itself felt even in National politics. And why should not the farmers form a guild for the protection of their interests as well as the other callings?

Poverty and Distress.

That poverty which produces the greatest distress is not of the purse but of the blood. Deprived of its richness it becomes scant and watery, a condition termed anemia in medical writings. Given this condition, and scrofulous swellings and sores, general and nervous debility, loss of flesh and appetite, weak lungs, throat disease, spitting of blood and consumption, are among the common results. If you are a sufferer from thin, poor blood employ Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," which enriches the blood and cures these grave affections. Is more nutritive than cod liver oil, and is harmless in any condition of the system, yet powerful to cure. By druggists.

After Three Years.

W. F. Walton, of Springfield, Tenn., says: "I have been suffering with Neuralgia in my face and head off and on for three years. I purchased a box of Dr. Tanner's infallible Neuralgia Cure and took eight of the pills. I have not felt any symptoms of Neuralgia since. It gives me pleasure to recommend it." Sold by Owen & Moore, Druggists, Clarksville, Tenn. oct8-1m

A Clean Sweep of the Family.

Near Madison, Ga., on Sunday, an American fellow citizen of African descent, killed not only his mother-in-law, and his father-in-law, but came very near killing his wife by cutting her throat with a razor. But she wouldn't kill with a razor, and Othello retired in haste to the woods to meditate "on murderous thoughts intent." The officers had not penetrated his philosophical retreat when last heard from.

Personal Freedom.

Benjamin Franklin Keagans, deputy sheriff of Harris county, Texas, shot and killed a grocery keeper named John Millenger on Saturday at Houston, Texas, merely because the latter gentleman had the impudence to decline to credit Benjamin Franklin Keagans, deputy sheriff &c., for the drinks.

MAJ. A. E. BURKE, of the New Orleans Times Democrat, it is reported, has about concluded to become a candidate for the United States Senate to succeed G. n Randall Gibson.
